DREAM BECOME
reality

For enduring memories and an unforgettable experience let Mosimann's Party Service take control. Relax in the knowledge that they have coordinated every aspect of your event to perfection.

With nearly 20 years in the business, Mosimann's Party Service boasts a long established and deserved reputation as a premier event caterer and management team to both private and corporate clients throughout London and beyond. Their experienced, professional and personable service is dedicated to achieving your vision of that "perfect party". With an extraordinary network of contacts and creative experts they frequently make the seemingly impossible, possible.

Their fresh, vibrant menus, impeccable style and superior service are complemented by an enthusiastic team who echo and enhance their exceptional reputation. A passion for excellence and a commitment to quality have earned them international standing; they are proud to have been awarded the Royal Warrant from HRH the Prince of Wales for excellence in catering.

Mosimann's Party Service works individually with you to create your bespoke event, ensuring that each occasion is a uniquely wonderful experience. Whether it's a canapé delivery for a drinks party, a wedding reception for 200 people or a dinner for 500 at a spectacular venue, they consistently deliver exquisite quality with the same standards of professionalism and service.

Mosimann's Party Service can also offer you the benefit of their in-house venue finder team who have over 25 years of industry knowledge, offering objective and independent advice, at no cost.

The key to a cracker of a party is planning. Let yourself have as much time as possible – gather your thoughts on what party you would like, who you want at your party, colours, theme, music...The whole point with Mosimann's Party Service is that it is a one-stop service – whatever the party of your dreams, Mosimann's can make it happen.

From an intimate or black tie dinner to a decadent 'do' with dancing into the small hours – Mosimann's Dining Club can be the answer. With seven stunning private dining rooms of differing capacities each styled by luxury brands such as Bentley, Montblanc, Stapleford Park as well as U'Luvka vodka as one of the latest additions. The smallest dining room sits two and the largest can fit 50. Your private butler will provide for and look after your every need.

The main restaurant is members-only dining but can also be hired for private parties for up to 100 seated guests or 200 for a canapé reception. You can also arrange for music to suit you and your guests' taste.

Having planned hundreds of parties themselves, Philipp and Mark Mosimann are well positioned to offer some useful advice. "Bear in mind colour schemes and theme – from the venue's décor, soft furnishings to flowers and dress code. For that extra touch, explore including scented candles to infuse that something special to the atmosphere. Your party should be fun from start to finish, and that includes before as well as after the party takes place. That's exactly what Mosimann's Party Service is here for."
